

St Andrews Square Edinburgh

Developed on behalf of CBRE IM and the Ardstone Regional Office Fund the building occupies one of the best locations in Edinburgh's city centre.

24 St Andrew Square sits at the heart of the New Town's commercial and cultural hub.

A total refurbishment programme has equipped this elegant, listed building to meet modern requirements providing open plan, contemporary workspace that is focused on well-being, sustainability and accessibility.

PMP's MD Stewart Rutherford led the Project Management while Kevin Sweeney led Principal Design. However it was a full team effort with the following professionals listed below delivering St Andrew's Design to the marketplace.
